

Tom Dawson, CPA, CPCU Partner

Tom Dawson, Partner. Tom is a CPA and earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. Tom has also achieved his Chartered Casualty Property Underwriter (CPCU) designation. Tom began his career in public accounting in 1997 as a staff accountant after working in the insurance industry for a mutual insurance company. Tom has been with the Firm since its inception.

Tom performs reinsurance analyses, manages audit and tax engagements, prepares and review income tax returns, and assists clients in the preparation of their various regulatory filings. He also consults on a variety of management accounting functions for several insurance entity clients and delivers presentations and training to Board of Directors and Audit Committees. Tom has also developed and delivered insurance/accounting education courses externally to both clients and state insurance regulators. Tom has been instrumental in developing and training our staff on Strohm Ballweg audit and accounting methodologies.

Tom is a member of the Insurance Accounting and Systems Association and the Wisconsin Insurance Accountants Conference. He is also a member of the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants (WICPA) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
